

Every Blessing in the Heavens

Ephesians 1:3-2:10

Moderato (♩ = c. 90)

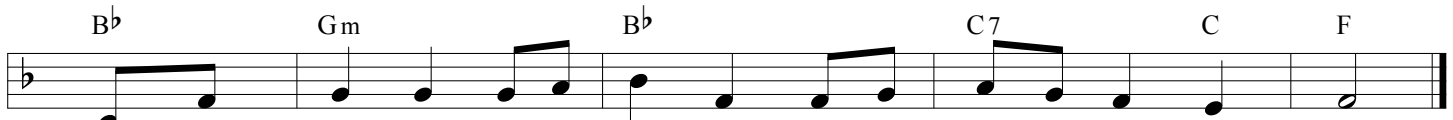

1. Ev - 'ry bless - ing in the heav - ens, free - ly giv - en ours in Christ.
2. We can boast no pride or mer - it, graced with glo - ry, mer - cy, love.
3. Once we hear the gos - pel mess - age and em - brace sal - va - tion's care,
4. While yet guil - ty, dead and sin - ful, ruled by flesh, and sons of hate,
5. Now Your cho - sen saints bring praise, bow low be - fore Your ho - ly throne,

For He chose us in Christ Je - sus, cher - ished us be - fore earth's light.
Oh, re - demp - tion! Oh, for - give - ness! Christ a - toned sin through His blood.
God's own Spir - it seals and keeps us, pledged for - ev - er - as His heir.
God gave Christ and raised us with Him; Now we're joined to Hea - ven's gate.
Hum - bled, weep - ing, ev - er know - ing we've done no - thing to be known.

He was pleased to call us ho - ly, pure and blame - less near His throne.
La - vish rich - es, grace a - bun - dant, what sweet myst - 'ry Christ re - vealed.
May the Fath - er grant us know - ledge of the splen - dor of this call.
Saved by grace through faith a - lone, not by our works, not by our will.
Had not Christ been in - ter - ven - ing, in - ter - ced - ing, damned we'd be.

In His kind - ness, God pre - des - tined our a - dop - tion as His own.
For His pur - pose, God pre - des - tined our in - her - i - tance as willed.
Through Christ Je - sus, God pre - des - tined err - ant men be - fore the fall.
Praise the Sav - ior! God pre - des - tined works of ser - vice to ful - fill.
Oh, what mer - cy! You pre - des - tined, forged our hearts to wor - ship thee!
